REQUEST FOR ORAL HEARING

Dear Sir:

This is an urgent Request for an oral hearing in the above identified Appeal. It is noted that the Request is overdue by 4 days. The Applicant strenuously entreats the Board to waive the rules only regarding the due date for the Request because the Request could not be timely made due to extenuating circumstances. The delay was completely unavoidable.

Due to no fault of the Applicant or Counsel, Counsel for the Applicant did not timely receive the client's instructions Requesting that a Petition for an Oral Hearing along with a fee be submitted before the due date of Sunday August 14, 2011. The email instructions were sent to counsel for the Applicant on Friday August 12, 2011, but due to a problem with the email system of Counsel, which has since been corrected, the instructions were not received until Wednesday August 17, 2011, three days after the due date of August 14, 2011.

As soon as the email system was corrected, counsel received the instructions and immediately phoned Jodie Flakowicz at the BPAI on August 17, 2011. Ms. Flakowicz called counsel for the Applicant on August 18, 2011 and informed her that she should submit the Request and Petition none-the-less explaining the unavoidable and extenuating circumstances.

Counsel for the Applicant has made every diligent effort to correct the problem and to file the Petition and Request as instructed as soon as possible after the error was discovered.

Counsel apologizes for the error due to the email system, requests that the Applicant not be penalized for the email system error, and humbly requests favorable consideration and understanding from the Board. Counsel further requests that the Petition and Request be accepted and looks forward to the Board's response. If the Board has any questions at all, the Board is encouraged to contact Counsel for the Applicant at the contact information listed below.

Please charge any fees or remit any credits to our deposit account, 12-0400, as necessary.

Respectfully submitted,
